

Surname:.....
Name:.....
Group:.....
Number:.....

Typical Answer to the Questions of the First Semester Exam
in the Module of Introduction to Political Science(1)

(Only for Foreign Students)

Put a cross (x) in the correct answer box:

- The Origins of the word Politics go back to thought: Roman Islamic Socialist Greek [02] Arabic
- The Territory of the State Necessarily Includes a part of the Land and the Space above it, and a maritime space: True False [02] Somewhat
- "Governers" is a Term Referring to the Persons who exercise: Executive Authority [02]
Legislative Authority Judicial Authority Political Authority
- The fields of Contemporary Political Science are: Political Thought Comparative Politics [0.50]
Public Policy International Relations [0.50] Public Administration [0.50]
International law Political Theory [0.50] Comparative Governments
- Parliament is a Governmental Political Institution that works on: Rules-Explanation
Rules-Application Rules-Making [02] Rules-Adjudication
- A person who Practices Politics is called: Political Researcher
Political Man [02] Political Scientist Political Philosopher
- The political phenomenon is: Facts [0.50] Events [0.50]
Actions [0.50] Behaviors [0.50]
- The President of the Republic assumes his post by: Popular Referendum [0.50]
Appointment Direct Election [0.50] Heredity Indirect Election [0.50]
- It results from the State's enjoyment of the legal moral personality: Government Continuity
Governmental System Continuity Political System Continuity State Continuity [02]
- Political Power within any Political Society has two Faces: Authority [01.25] State
Sovereignty Influence [01.25] Government Recognition